A Founder With a Unique Blend of Business, Technology, and Accounting Expertise

Stephen Ray Jordan's background spans several fields—making him uniquely qualified to transform complex financial and operational challenges into simple, actionable solutions.

Jordan holds a BBA in Accounting and an MA in Political Science from West Texas A&M University, along with doctoral coursework (EdD) at Texas A&M University. His career includes roles as a senior consultant at McAfee, global security and incident-response leadership positions at Intel and Citi, IT consulting roles, and over a decade of accounting and business management experience as co-owner of Jordan & Jordan Insurance Group.

Throughout his career, he has worked with Fortune 1000 organizations—including Citibank, NYSE, Boeing, hospitals, and international service providers—supporting complex systems, cybersecurity programs, and technology implementation initiatives.

His transition into full-time accounting and business services reflects his long-standing passion for helping small businesses gain financial strength, operational stability, and long-term sustainability.

"Small Businesses Deserve Clean Books, Clear Insights, and a Trusted Partner."

"Small business owners carry a tremendous amount of responsibility," says Stephen Jordan, Founder and Owner of SRJ Consulting & Services LLC. "My goal is to take the financial burden off their shoulders—so they can focus on growth. I've spent my entire career solving complex problems in finance, technology, and risk management. Now, I'm bringing all of that experience together to help small businesses succeed with clean, accurate, and dependable bookkeeping."
