Jaipur, Rajasthan Nov 28, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Stunning big stone sculptures, intricately hand-carved small stone masterpieces, landscaping statues and fountains are not limited to the ancient past anymore. Now they are all in reach in every corner of the world. Yes, for almost 2 decades, Stonemart™ the popular manufacturing and export brand of India, has been letting you experience the beauty of Indian stones. With the door delivery option to any location, irrespective of your city, state or even country, you can order products that are handcrafted and designed to last for ages, not years.

With a huge collection of over 12,000 products all out of pure natural stone, this brand is spreading smiles all over. The best part about the work of this stone company is that it caters to the demand for modern interiors, exteriors and even landscaping. One can expect beautiful hand-carved marble stone Buddha statues with sizes starting from 2 feet to 6 feet with weights from 80 kg to over 1.5 tons for both indoor and outdoor. Similarly, there are sculptures for hotels, resorts, and commercial spaces that immediately draw one's attention towards them by their intricate detailing.

Stonemart™ is manufacturing stone masterpieces in the form of stone buddha statues, garden fountains, indoor tabletop fountains for modern interiors, planters, stone furniture for indoor and outdoor spaces, and God idols for home, temple and outdoor commercial spaces. Addition to that, there are abstract sculptures, stone buddha fountains, granite water features, and stone animals like elephant sculptures that are irresistible and in great demand for residential and commercial spaces.

Recently the company has introduced a mix of small tabletop stone fountains on the increasing demand of peoples' love for small indoor masterpieces and big granite Buddha and Ganesha fountains for both indoor and outdoor use. For modern decor, the manufacturing and export brand has introduced a new range of indoor stone abstract sculptures, granite and sandstone water fountains, stone birdbaths for exteriors, and Buddha stone statues for consoles. For landscaping, this international brand is offering stepping stones, rocks for gardens, stone benches, planters, monoliths and statues that are simply second to none.

The main feature that makes Stonemart™ a unique brand is its professional approach led by its founder, Mr. Swadesh Rohilla. Right from the inception, the company has been following an ethical code of conduct and is committed to manufacturing and delivering stone masterpieces to any corner of the world in perfect condition. When asked about the next plan of the company, Mr. Rohilla focused mainly on bringing more options for gardens, which the company was earlier exporting. He emphasized now one can expect stone garden artifacts and modern sculptures for commercial establishments like farmhouses, Real estate entities, hospitals, clubhouses, resorts and even hotels. This is going to revolutionize the way outdoor decor is looked upon in India.
