

Time To Play Host Networking Event to Partner Nonprofit Organizations with Business Partners

The networking opportunity for non-profits and their supporters on November 12, is in anticipation of the third annual Time to Play event.

New Orleans, Louisiana Nov 12, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - In anticipation of Time With Ty's Third annual networking event, "Time to Play" to be held in February, 2026, a networking gathering will be held on November 12, from 6pm to 8pm in the Carousel Gardens in City Park, New Orleans. The event is open to all nonprofit organizations and those that support them (volunteers, vendors and sponsors).

The Time to Play Networking event invites adults and other philanthropists to network and play while discovering nonprofit organizations, membership organizations, and supportive businesses. "On Wednesday, November 12 we will have an exclusive networking opportunity. Attendees can discover how they can support and connect with organizations making a real impact," says Ty Salvant, founder and owner of Time with Ty.

The main event in February will continue with the theme of "Connect, Partner, and Play". Ty Salvant, founder of Time with Ty says that she has heard great feedback from the annual event. "The level of enthusiasm was off the charts. Not one moment, but a steady stream of genuine interest and curiosity, says Mel B, one of last year's participants.

Nonprofit organizations who attended last year included the New Orleans Public Library, NOLA Loves Cuba, One Happy Mama, Generation Hope, Fathers Matter NOLA, and many more.

To learn more about Time to Play, share ideas, explore partnerships, and collaborate with like-minded leaders who are passionate about community, growth, and making a difference, visit timewithty.com.

Media Contact

Corbec Media, LLC

@corbecmedia.com

Source : Time With Ty

See on IssueWire