Claudio Bono

Tomah, Wisconsin Jan 5, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Social innovator, nonprofit founder, and hospitality veteran Claudio Bono announces the release of his new book, The Homelessness Fix: How to Save the World While Everyone Else Argues About It, a timely and solutions-focused work addressing one of the most pressing social challenges of our time.

About the Book

The Homelessness Fix presents a pragmatic, three-year blueprint to significantly reduce homelessness in the United States without increasing taxes. Drawing from decades of leadership in hospitality and nonprofit work, Bono outlines an innovative model that repurposes billions of dollars in unused airline miles and hotel loyalty points, supported by coordinated Welcome Centers and cross-sector collaboration.

Blending memoir, research, and policy analysis, the book reframes homelessness as a solvable logistical and humanitarian issue. The approach prioritizes dignity, efficiency, and immediate impact, offering a scalable framework that can be adopted nationwide.
