

"All the Hits All the Time" Explores Rock & Roll's Defining Moments and Enduring Legends

Larry Coffman's Book Delivers In-Depth Accounts of Chart-Topping Hits, Iconic Artists, and Industry-Shaking Events

Los Angeles, California Dec 12, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - "All the Hits All the Time: More Distinctive Rock Memories from the Coffman Collection" is packed with fascinating trivia and behind-the-scenes stories and narrates the pivotal events that shaped the music industry and the legends who made it all happen.

Known as "The Rock Doc," Coffman has spent decades chronicling the evolution of rock music. With a journalism degree from Bradley University and a career spanning roles as a reporter, columnist, and editor, he has dedicated himself to preserving the stories of rock & roll. His 16-year affiliation with The Acoustic Storm, an internationally syndicated radio show, highlights his commitment to sharing the magic of music with fans everywhere.

In this third installment of his rock history collection, Coffman explores the stories behind chart-topping hits, legendary artists, and music's most pivotal moments. He dives into intriguing questions—like which artist landed top 10 hits with two versions of the same song 13 years apart—and reflects on April 4, 1964, one of rock & roll's most significant dates. He also pays tribute to the icons lost too soon, revisiting the heartbreaking air crashes that shook the industry.
