New York City, New York Dec 3, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Centurion Global Capital has appointed Ajani Windsor-Areago as Principal, Private Credit & Debt Origination. In this role, he will lead the sourcing, evaluation, and structuring of senior-debt and private-credit transactions across real estate, infrastructure, and corporate sectors. His responsibilities include expanding Centurion's partner network, strengthening institutional capital relationships, and building a scalable multi-market origination platform.

Before joining Centurion, Windsor-Areago held leadership roles across venture capital and private credit. At Platform Capital, he served as Head of North America, Strategy & Investments, overseeing cross-border investment activity. He later built his institutional credit experience at ING, where he worked in senior-secured debt origination and managed lender and investor relationships across several regions. He also served as a Venture Partner at Expert Dojo Ventures, supporting early-stage companies with capital strategy and growth initiatives.

At Centurion, Windsor-Areago will focus on underwriting discipline, due-diligence oversight, and aligning capital structures with client objectives across the firm's global private-credit platform.

Centurion Global Capital is a financial and strategic advisory firm specializing in private-credit structuring, capital-markets advisory, financial modeling, and risk management. The firm also provides cross-border trade and import-export consulting to support organizations expanding into new markets.
