Waxahachie, Texas Dec 8, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Dr. Oyinkansola Jinadu, widely known as Dr. OJ, is a Nigerian-American community leader, educator, and entrepreneur. Her educational background is a Bachelor of Science in Microbiology from the University of Lagos, Nigeria, followed by a Master of Science in Psychology from the University of Phoenix, Arizona, and later, a Doctorate in Philosophy (Humanities) from the United Graduate College and Seminary International. Dr. OJ is the Founder of the Honeydrops Foundation and a member of the Dallas Domestic Violence Task Force. Dr. OJ officially announced her candidacy for Ellis County Commissioner Precinct #4 today, running on the Democratic ticket. Dr. OJ's campaign, anchored by the slogan, "We Shine The Light", is focused on bringing unprecedented transparency to county budgeting and work, ensuring that Precinct 4 residents have a clear, honest view of their tax dollars in action.

Dr. OJ chose a social media announcement to directly engage with the community, emphasizing her commitment to open communication from day one.

"The time for obscurity in county government is over," said Dr. OJ. "Our campaign is about turning on the lights. Ellis County families deserve to know exactly how their money is being spent and why. As your County Commissioner, I will establish a new standard for transparency in budgeting and county work, ensuring every decision is made with the community's trust and best interest at heart."

Dr. OJ's platform addresses critical quality-of-life issues for Precinct 4, built on the following key talking points:

- Safer, Smoother Infrastructure: Families deserve safer roads, smoother commutes, and transparent infrastructure planning that prioritizes long-term community needs.
- Resilient Neighborhoods: Proactive maintenance and investment in flood-resilient drainage systems are essential to protect neighborhoods and property.
- Taxpayer Accountability: Taxpayers deserve clear reporting, honest budgeting, and visible progress on county projects.
- Community and Growth: Children deserve communities where they can safely learn, play, and grow, supported by responsible county leadership.
- A Responsive Leader: Precinct 4 deserves a leader who will genuinely listen, communicate openly, and act decisively on behalf of the constituents.

Dr. OJ has committed to being a transparent, accessible, and action-oriented leader for Precinct #4. Her announcement marks the start of a campaign focused on building a stronger, more accountable future for all Ellis County residents.

Ellis County, TX voting dates: Early voting October 19-30, Election Day Tuesday, November 3rd.
