

Eliot Jekowsky, Ph.D., M.D., Honored in America's Best in Medicine for Advancing Healthcare Innovation and Access

Innovative Healthcare Consultant Leverages Two Decades of Experience to Enhance Reimbursement Processes for Healthcare Technology Companies

Boston, Massachusetts Dec 4, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Boston, Massachusetts – Eliot Jekowsky, Ph.D., M.D., a distinguished clinician, physician executive, and medical policy specialist, is revolutionizing the way healthcare technology companies navigate the challenging landscape of reimbursement. With over two decades of experience at the intersection of medicine, science, and healthcare economics, Dr. Jekowsky is the Founder and Principal of Eliot Jekowsky and Associates, where he partners with innovators to streamline the reimbursement process, ensuring they secure payer coverage efficiently.

Dr. Jekowsky, a distinguished scholar and medical professional, began his academic career at Queens College before earning a Ph.D. in biochemistry from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He later advanced his training through the University of Miami's Ph.D.-to-M.D. program, where he completed his medical degree. His board certifications in Internal and Emergency Medicine paved the way for a shift from clinical practice to healthcare management, culminating in an M.B.A. from Northeastern University's D'Amore-McKim School of Business. His multifaceted educational background equips him with a deep understanding of both the scientific and economic aspects of healthcare.

As a former Medical Director for Blue Cross Blue Shield of Massachusetts, Dr. Jekowsky possesses invaluable insights into payer expectations and medical necessity criteria. His expertise in evidence-based policy development is instrumental in helping clients understand and navigate the intricacies of securing insurance acceptance post-FDA approval. He excels at developing sound clinical evidence strategies and translating complex policy language into actionable insights, which are crucial for successful product positioning—from investigational status to approved coverage.

Dr. Jekowsky's clients appreciate his strategic mindset, analytical precision, and unwavering commitment to transparency. These qualities have consistently led to improved reimbursement outcomes for both emerging and established healthcare technologies. His ability to bridge the gap between scientific innovation and market access has made him a sought-after consultant in the healthcare industry.

Today, Dr. Jekowsky continues to leverage his multidisciplinary expertise to assist healthcare innovators in overcoming reimbursement challenges, ultimately transforming their groundbreaking technologies into accessible solutions for patients. By fostering pathways for access and success, Dr. Eliot Jekowsky is dedicated to ensuring that life-changing medical advancements reach those who need them most.
