

iKRE8 UNVEILS "FIRE AND ICE" HOLIDAY DOUBLE FEATURE WITH AI ARTISTS KYE AND KYA

Creative collective iKRE8 announces two distinct singles dropping this December: an inspirational anthem for the brokenhearted and a cheeky pop hit for the 'Naughty List.

New York City, New York Dec 9, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - iKRE8 is proud to announce a dual musical release this holiday season, showcasing the immense range of its virtual artists, Kye and Kya. From deep, soulful resilience to high-energy holiday fun, these two tracks demonstrate the project's ability to bridge human emotion with cutting-edge AI artistry.

The first release, arriving December 12th, introduces Kye with the powerful single "Trouble Got Through." A unique blend of R&B, Country, and Christian Rock, the track is an anthem for anyone feeling at their lowest. "Trouble Got Through" carries a message of divine protection and hope—a reminder that when disaster strikes, rebuilding is possible. "This song was written by a friend and brought to life through Kye to create something truly moving," says creator iKRE8. "The video features powerful imagery of flood and fire disasters, symbolizing the storms we weather and the strength required to stand again. It is a track I am incredibly proud of."

On December 16th, the tone shifts dramatically with the release of Kya's "Naughty List." Designed to be a modern holiday classic, this track is a flirty, radio-ready mix of Pop, R&B, and Hip-Hop. The song embraces a "bad girl" aesthetic with a humorous twist, declaring that being on the naughty list is exactly where the fun is. "We wanted something new and different that could stand alongside classic holiday songs," "It's cheeky, it's funny, and it captures a vibrant Christmas vibe that definitely belongs on the charts."
