

Internationally Best-Selling Artist Oriana Gerez Continues to Build Nationwide Collector Demand

Award-Winning Visual Artist and Gallery Owner Recognized by Elite Nationwide Collectors

Miami, Florida Dec 19, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Oriana Gerez, an internationally best-selling visual artist and gallery owner, continues to expand her global presence through consistent domestic international sales, exhibitions, and collector recognition. With more than a decade of professional practice, Gerez has established a sustained career defined by originality, craftsmanship, and long-term market demand.

Gerez's artwork is held in private collections worldwide, including by elite collectors whose broader collections include works by artists such as Pablo Picasso, Joan Miró, and Erté. These placements reflect the caliber of collectors engaging with her work and the position her practice holds within the contemporary art market.

An award-winning artist, Gerez is recognized for a disciplined approach to visual storytelling that balances expressive depth with technical refinement. With an academic background in physics, she brings analytical structure and precision to her creative process, resulting in work that resonates with both collectors and curators.

In addition to her studio practice, Oriana Gerez is a gallery owner, actively curating exhibitions and supporting professional artists through thoughtful presentation and long-term career development. Her gallery initiatives emphasize quality, integrity, and sustainable artistic growth.

"My focus has always been on building a career grounded in consistency, discipline, and meaningful engagement with collectors," said Gerez. "I value longevity over trends and approach my work with that perspective."

As an internationally best-selling artist, Gerez continues to cultivate relationships with collectors, expand exhibition opportunities, and develop new bodies of work that reflect her commitment to excellence and professional evolution.

About Oriana Gerez

Oriana Gerez is an internationally best-selling, award-winning visual artist and gallery owner with over a decade of professional experience. Her original artworks are collected worldwide by private collectors and are recognized for their uniqueness, narrative strength, and striking visual impact.

Media Contact

Oriana Gerez Art

@gmail.com

617-637-8110

189 NW 25th St, Miami, FL 33127

Source : Oriana Gerez Art

See on IssueWire