

INTSY LLC and FasterCapital Announce Strategic Alliance to Accelerate Global Expansion of ROBHIETM Hybrid Intelligence

INTSY LLC (USA) and Integral Systems S.A.S (Colombia) join FasterCapital's LaunchUp program to accelerate global deployment of ROBHIETM, a next-generation Hybrid Intelligence ecosystem for enterprise automation.

specializing in Hybrid Intelligence and enterprise automation, together with its founding company Integral Systems S.A.S (Colombia), has announced a strategic partnership with FasterCapital through its LaunchUp program. The alliance strengthens INTSY's global expansion strategy and accelerates the international deployment of its flagship Hybrid Intelligence ecosystem, ROBHIETM, and its on-demand services vertical, ROBHIIE QUICKTM.

ROBHIETM is a next-generation Hybrid Intelligence platform that unifies AI, autonomous multi-agent systems, workflow automation, document intelligence, real-time voice operations and modular enterprise SaaS components. Unlike traditional ERP or CRM systems, ROBHIETM introduces a new operating paradigm where intelligent agents execute complete business processes through natural language—reducing administrative workload and increasing organizational efficiency.

Through FasterCapital's support, INTSY LLC gains strategic mentorship, capital-raising assistance, and access to a global acceleration framework designed to strengthen development and market penetration across the United States, Europe, Canada, LATAM and the Middle East.

Executive Perspectives

Hesham Zreik, Founder & CEO of FasterCapital, stated:

"INTSY represents the type of forward-thinking company that aligns with our LaunchUp program. Their Hybrid Intelligence approach—combining AI, autonomous agents and voice-driven operations—addresses global needs for more efficient and intelligent business automation."

Carlos Alcides Ramírez Rodríguez, CEO of INTSY LLC and Founder of ROBHIETM, commented:

"This partnership marks a milestone in our global expansion. With INTSY LLC leading innovation and delivering platforms such as ROBHIETM and ROBHIIE QUICKTM, we are prepared to scale across North America, Europe, LATAM and the Middle East."

ROBHIETM Hybrid Intelligence Ecosystem

ROBHIETM is a next-generation Hybrid Intelligence ecosystem composed of nine integrated platforms that unify document intelligence, workflow automation, financial operations, community management, hospitality technology, food services, education management, healthcare processing and smart parking systems. Each module operates independently but connects seamlessly under a unified AI-driven architecture that optimizes and automates enterprise processes across industries.
