

Investors Publish Public Allegations Concerning Financial Dealings With Marc Axthelm

Two investors, aged 21 and 78, have come forward with public complaints regarding their financial dealings with Marc Axthelm, alleging that significant funds have not been returned despite repeated requests

Hamburg, Germany Dec 20, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Two investors, aged 21 and 78, have come forward with public complaints regarding their financial dealings with Marc Axthelm, alleging that significant funds have not been returned despite repeated requests. According to their statements, the combined amount in dispute is approximately $300,000 USD.

The investors claim that requests for withdrawals and repayment were met with prolonged delays, inconsistent explanations, and increasingly tense communication. Both individuals have stated that attempts to resolve the matter privately were unsuccessful.

To ensure transparency and public awareness, the claimants have published the documents, screenshots, communication logs, and their full timeline of events on a dedicated website: www.marcaxthelm.com

The allegations outlined by the two parties include:

- Unreturned principal investment funds totaling approximately $300,000 USD
- Delays and lack of clarity regarding payout requests
- Communication that the investors describe as hostile or aggressive when attempting to recover their funds
- Concerns regarding regulatory compliance and financial conduct

These claims are publicly available and have been made solely by the investors involved. At this time, the matter remains unverified by legal authorities, and no criminal or civil judgment has been issued regarding the allegations.

The purpose of making this information public, according to the investors, is to raise awareness, encourage accountability, and ensure the situation receives appropriate attention from regulatory and investigative bodies.

Call for Review and Transparency

The complainants have expressed hope that by releasing their documentation, the situation will be examined more closely by relevant authorities or financial oversight entities. They state that they are prepared to cooperate fully with any formal review process.

Background Information

Marc Axthelm is known publicly as the son of Dr. Hubertus Christian Axthelm, a figure associated with various professional roles in Germany. At present, no official statements have been released by Mr. Axthelm or his representatives regarding the allegations.

About the Website

The website www.marcaxthelm.com is managed by the investors and contains all materials they have chosen to disclose publicly. The website includes:

- Email and message transcripts
- Transaction summaries
- Audio recordings
- Detailed narrative accounts
- A chronological timeline of events as experienced by the claimants

Media Contact

Marc Axthelm

@gmail.com

Source : Marc Axthelm

See on IssueWire