June Toal: Empowering Homeowners and Revitalizing Neighborhoods with CedarPlanted Investments, LLC

Gastonia, North Carolina Dec 4, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - June Toal, a dedicated real estate investor and entrepreneur, is making waves in the residential investment sector with her company, CedarPlanted Investments, LLC. Serving the metro Charlotte area and its surrounding communities, June specializes in fix-and-flip projects and wholesaling off-market properties, leveraging her unique skills to transform homes and improve lives.

With a background of 30 years in nursing, June has seamlessly transitioned into the real estate industry, bringing a servant's heart and a wealth of experience to her new vocation. Her commitment to helping others remains steadfast as she guides clients through challenging circumstances, such as avoiding foreclosure or overcoming financial setbacks. By offering compassionate solutions, she provides much-needed relief and stability, ensuring that each client feels supported throughout their journey.

June's keen eye for potential allows her to appreciate the charm and architecture of each property. She revitalizes homes by incorporating thoughtful design influences that enhance their appeal while respecting their historical significance. Her passion for home transformation not only uplifts individual properties but also contributes to the overall revitalization of neighborhoods.

A vital component of June's success is her strategic networking approach. By collaborating with a dedicated team of professionals, she effectively promotes her wholesale properties, connects with potential buyers, and facilitates smooth transactions. This collaborative effort significantly enhances market exposure, allowing each investment to yield profitable returns.

Through her commitment to community improvement and her extensive networking, June has successfully expanded both her business and investment portfolio. She believes in the power of real estate to create lasting impacts, one home at a time, and is devoted to enriching her community through her work.

Outside of her professional endeavors, June finds joy in nature. Whether walking, hiking, or biking, she embraces the great outdoors, soaking up the beauty of her surroundings. She also enjoys bowling, attending meet-up events, and has a profound love for music—particularly worship music, which she writes and sings. Proudly an Alpha Gamma Delta alumna, June continues to cultivate connections and make a difference in the lives of those around her.
