With competitive rates, simplified underwriting, and faster approvals, Launch Financial Group makes DSCR financing accessible to investors at any stage.

2. Bridge Loans: For investors moving quickly on a purchase or needing a temporary financing solution, the company's bridge loan programs offer short-term capital to cover the gap between acquisition and permanent financing. Hard Money Loans: Recognizing the need for speed and flexibility in real estate investment, Launch Financial Group offers hard money loans that provide fast access to capital with streamlined qualifications. These loans are ideal for time-sensitive projects such as renovations, auctions, or distressed property purchases.

that align with the unique requirements and complexities of commercial investments.

Bank Statement Mortgages: For self-employed borrowers, small business owners, and entrepreneurs who may not have traditional income documentation, Launch Financial Group provides bank statement mortgage programs that use deposits, cash flow, and business performance as qualification metrics rather than W-2s or tax returns.
