

Los Angeles Origami Artist Jade Huynh Announces Landmark Season of Exhibitions and Partnerships

Founder of SVVAN Origami enters milestone year with national exhibitions, exclusive art experiences, and creative collaborations across art, sports, and fine dining.

Los Angeles, California Dec 11, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Los Angeles Origami Artist Jade Huynh Announces Landmark Season of Exhibitions, Creative Collaborations, and National Partnerships.

Founder of SVVAN Origami, enters a milestone year with a series of national exhibitions, exclusive art experiences, and creative partnerships across art, sports, community, and fine dining. Known for her sculptural floral installations and experiential design work, SVVAN continues to expand the visibility and contemporary relevance of origami.

Her remaining 2025 schedule includes a featured exhibition represented by Perseus Gallery based in SOHO New York at Red Dot Miami 2025 during Miami Art Week and artistic contributions to a Japanese fine-dining restaurant opening in Phoenix, AZ. Among the quiet engagements ahead are her invitation to the Untamed Agency AAPI Holiday Gala in support of the Asian American community, and a private women-artists-only soirée dinner in DTLA.

These projects mark an important chapter of creative exploration and national expansion.

2024–2025 Highlights:

- Disney Live / "Turning Red" AANHPI Activation
- Adidas LA Fashion Show Dessert Collaboration
- International Showcases in Miami & London
- Terasaki Budokan & Little Tokyo Community Art Programs
- CinePride Origami Floral Arch Installation
- Angel City FC AAPI Month Origami Activation

These collaborations show SVVANs ability to translate origami into cross disciplinary experiences that connect audiences through culture, story, and craftsmanship.

Upcoming Exhibitions & Projects:

- Red Dot Miami 2025 — debuting a new collection exploring modular engineering, floral geometry, and emotional narrative
- New Japanese Fine-Dining Restaurant (Phoenix) — designing handcrafted paper elements inspired by Japanese balance, harmony, and craft tradition

My journey as an origami artist began while I was on a completely different career path. Making the leap was seen as risky—something that didn't make sense to others. But when you're doing something that hasn't been done before, nothing makes sense at first. Exploring the unknown through origami has been both fulfilling and challenging, allowing me to grow into myself while breaking through the glass ceilings of what people believe origami can be. I continue to reach beyond limits—to aim beyond the stars, beyond the moon—driven by the belief that origami is my superpower, and that there is a place for it everywhere in the world.

About SVVAN Origami: Founded by Los Angeles artist Jade Huynh, SVVAN Origami is a multidisciplinary creative studio specializing in sculptural paper art, immersive installations, and community-based programming. SVVAN blends traditional folding techniques with contemporary design to create meaningful experiences across exhibitions, sports activations, community and non-profit partnerships, workshops, private commissions, and international showcases.

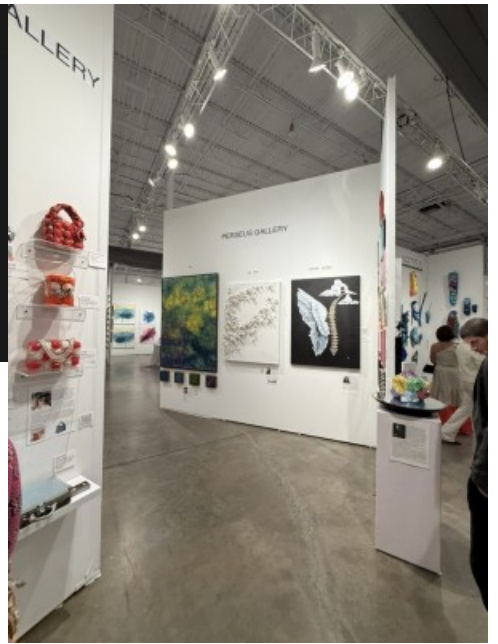

Media Contact: SVVAN Origami

Phone: (323) 379-2067

Email: info@svvan.art

Website: <https://svvan.art/>

Instagram: @svvan_origami

Media Contact

Jade Huynh

@svvan.art

Source : svvan

See on IssueWire