

Luminous empowers car care installers and detailers worldwide this festive season with exclusive benefits

Dubai, United Arab Emirates Dec 5, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Luminous, a global leader in premium automotive care products, has announced a special festive season offer designed exclusively for car care installers and detailers. As demand for vehicle cleaning and detailing services surges during the festive period, Luminous is offering 10% off the first order of its high-performance car care products, enabling professionals to enhance service quality while maximizing profitability.

This seasonal initiative supports car care businesses during one of the busiest times of the year, when customers are looking to refresh, clean, and enhance the appearance of their vehicles in preparation for celebrations.

“Festive seasons bring a natural increase in detailing requests, and we want to ensure that every installer and detailer has access to the best products at the best possible value,” said W. Mari, International Sales Director at Luminous. “Our 10% offer allows professionals to stock up on premium products at a reduced cost, allowing them to increase their margins while delivering top-tier results to their customers.”

The promotion underscores Luminous’ long-standing commitment to supporting its professional network and reinforcing its competitive edge in the global market. By offering exclusive seasonal advantages, Luminous continues to distinguish itself from competitors while empowering new customers to boost both service quality and profitability.

“Our mission has always been clear support the growth of car care professionals with products they can trust,” added W. Mari. “We stand confidently behind the quality of every product we make, and this festive season offer reflects our dedication to delivering value, reliability, and exceptional customer service.”
