

Miss Grand United Kingdom Appoints Daniela Costin as New National Director Ahead of 2026 Final

Daniela Costin brings a renewed focus on professional training, contestant development, and international representation for the UK's fastest-growing pageant.

London, United Kingdom Dec 7, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Miss Grand United Kingdom Welcomes New Director Daniela Costin Ahead of the 2026 National Final

Miss Grand United Kingdom is entering an exciting new chapter with the official appointment of Daniela Costin as the new national director. Daniela, already known in the UK pageant community for her commitment to empowering women and elevating pageantry standards, will now lead the organisation into a fresh era of growth and opportunity.

Under her leadership, Miss Grand United Kingdom will relaunch with renewed focus on high-level training, contestant development, and a stronger pathway to the international stage.

National Final Announced for May 2026

The organisation is pleased to confirm that the next Miss Grand United Kingdom National Final will take place in May 2026. Contestants from across England, Scotland, Wales, and Northern Ireland will compete for the national crown and the chance of a lifetime:

to represent the United Kingdom at Miss Grand International 2026, one of the world's most recognised and fast-growing global beauty pageants.

This announcement marks the beginning of a transformative season for the UK pageant industry, as Miss Grand United Kingdom aims to become one of the most empowering and professionally run pageants in the country.

A Message from the New Director

Speaking about this new journey, Daniela shared:

“It's an honour to take on Miss Grand United Kingdom. My vision is to create a pageant experience where every finalist feels supported, valued, and truly prepared for the international stage. Miss Grand International is a global powerhouse, and I want our UK representative to arrive with confidence, strong training, and a platform they believe in.”

What Contestants Can Expect in the 2026 Season

Under the new management, finalists will benefit from:

- Professional pageant coaching
- Confidence and presentation workshops
- High-quality photoshoots
- Media and social-media training
- Access to industry experts and mentors
- A warm, supportive community throughout their journey

This structured development programme aims to ensure that the UK representative is fully prepared for Miss Grand International 2026.
