

NoCo Contracting Wishes Northern Colorado Merry Christmas, Ready for 2026 Remodeling Projects

Family-owned general contractor with 15+ years of experience stands ready to help homeowners achieve New Year home improvement goals across Fort Collins area.

Fort Collins, Colorado Dec 24, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - NoCo Contracting, a trusted residential general contractor serving Northern Colorado, extends warm holiday wishes to the community while announcing its readiness to support homeowners with their New Year remodeling projects and home improvement goals. As families gather to celebrate Christmas and begin planning for 2026, the family-owned business emphasizes its commitment to helping Northern Colorado residents transform their houses into the homes they envision for the year ahead.

Founded in 2009 by Steven Brown, Owner and CEO, NoCo Contracting has established itself as a reliable partner for homeowners seeking professional remodeling services across Fort Collins and communities throughout Northern Colorado within a 25-mile radius of Eaton.

"We want to wish everyone in our community a very Merry Christmas," said Steven Brown, Owner and CEO of NoCo Contracting. "As we celebrate with our families and reflect on this past year, we're also looking forward with excitement. The New Year brings fresh starts and new possibilities, and we're ready to help homeowners turn their 2026 remodeling dreams into reality."

The transition from holiday celebrations to New Year planning often inspires homeowners to envision changes they want to make in their living spaces. Whether updating outdated kitchens, transforming bathrooms, finishing basements, or adding space through home additions, the beginning of a new year represents an ideal time to begin planning significant home improvements.

NoCo Contracting specializes in comprehensive residential remodeling services, including kitchen renovations, bathroom updates, basement finishing, home additions, and whole-home transformations. The company's 15 years of experience have refined its ability to guide homeowners through every stage of the remodeling process, from initial consultation and design to final completion.

As a family-owned business, NoCo Contracting operates with a foundation of integrity and personalized service. Brown brings a friendly, approachable demeanor to every client interaction, recognizing that remodeling projects represent significant investments and often involve transforming the spaces where families create their most important memories.

"The New Year is the perfect time to start planning your remodeling projects," Brown explained. "Whether you've been dreaming about a kitchen that works better for your family, a bathroom that feels like a spa retreat, or a finished basement that adds valuable living space, we're here to help make it happen. Winter planning gives you time to make thoughtful decisions without rushing."

The company's focus on residential remodeling has enabled NoCo Contracting to develop deep expertise in the specific challenges and opportunities that Northern Colorado homes present. From understanding local building requirements to navigating regional architectural styles and climate considerations, the team's local knowledge enhances every project.

Kitchen remodeling remains one of the most popular services NoCo Contracting provides, with homeowners seeking to update layouts, improve functionality, and modernize aesthetics for the year ahead. Bathroom renovations offer opportunities to enhance daily comfort while adding value to properties. Basement finishing projects transform underutilized spaces into functional living areas, while home additions provide expanded square footage for growing families.

Winter planning allows homeowners to make thoughtful decisions about their remodeling projects without the pressure of peak season demands. NoCo Contracting works with clients to develop detailed plans, establish realistic budgets, and create timelines that align with family schedules and lifestyle needs.

The company's 15 years of service to Northern Colorado have built a foundation of trust within the community. Brown emphasizes that successful remodeling requires clear communication, attention to detail, and genuine understanding of each homeowner's vision and goals.

NoCo Contracting's friendly approach sets the tone for positive client relationships throughout the remodeling process. The company recognizes that renovation projects can be disruptive to daily life and works to minimize inconvenience while maintaining consistent progress and quality craftsmanship.

"As we celebrate Christmas with our loved ones, we're grateful for the trust our community has placed in us since 2009," Brown said. "We're excited to continue serving Northern Colorado families in 2026, helping transform houses into the homes our neighbors have been dreaming about."

Whether homeowners are considering a single-room update or a comprehensive whole-home renovation, NoCo Contracting's experience across diverse project types enables the team to provide knowledgeable guidance and professional execution. The company's residential focus ensures that every project receives the specialized attention that home remodeling requires.
