

Oriana Gerez Recognized as an Internationally Best-Selling Artist Collected by Distinguished Global Collectors

Award-Winning Visual Artist and Gallery Owner Sustains a Decade-Long Professional Practice

Miami, Florida Dec 17, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Oriana Gerez is an internationally best-selling visual artist and gallery owner whose work continues to attract sustained interest from collectors worldwide. With more than ten years of professional experience, Gerez has built a career marked by international sales, exhibitions, and recognition across competitive art markets.

Her original artworks are held in private collections internationally, including by elite collectors whose collections also feature works by historically significant artists such as Pablo Picasso, Joan Miró, and Erté. This level of collector alignment reflects the quality, seriousness, and long-term value associated with Gerez's work.

An award-winning artist, Gerez is known for her refined visual language and commitment to craftsmanship. Her academic background in physics informs a structured and analytical approach to artmaking, resulting in work that balances technical discipline with expressive storytelling.

Beyond her studio practice, Oriana Gerez operates as a gallery owner, curating exhibitions and supporting artists through professional presentation and career development initiatives. Her gallery leadership emphasizes integrity, thoughtful curation, and sustainable artistic growth.

"My focus has always been on building a serious, long-term career," said Gerez. "I approach my work with discipline and intention, prioritizing quality and consistency over short-term trends."

As an internationally best-selling artist, Gerez continues to expand her global footprint through new collections, exhibitions, and ongoing engagement with collectors and collaborators worldwide.
