

Rising Alabama Actor Deonta Lamar Launches New Films “Masked Halo” and “5 Lil Penguins” and Secures Amazon Role

Montgomery, Alabama Dec 3, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Rising Alabama Actor Deonta Lamar Launches Two New Film Projects, “Masked Halo” and “5 Lil Penguins,” and Announces New Acting Role in Amazon Film

Alabama-born actor, filmmaker, and rising digital creator Deonta Lamar is making major strides in independent entertainment with the launch of two original film projects — the sci-fi action series “Masked Halo” and the gritty, character-driven urban drama “5 Lil Penguins.” Adding to his growing momentum, Lamar also reveals his newest acting achievement: a supporting role as a doctor/surgeon in an upcoming Amazon-distributed film, marking a breakthrough moment in his professional acting career.

Known online as @d33blk, Lamar has quickly built a reputation as a multi-talented creative force with a distinctive visual style and a powerful connection to Southern storytelling. His ability to merge action, emotion, cultural authenticity, and cinematic aesthetics has positioned him as one of Alabama’s most promising up-and-coming filmmakers.

🔗 “Masked Halo” — A High-Impact Sci-Fi Action Series

Created, written, and directed by Lamar, “Masked Halo” introduces audiences to a mysterious fighter chosen by a supernatural force known as the Halo. The project blends high-intensity combat, dramatic world-building, and surreal visual effects to create a fresh sci-fi universe influenced by modern action cinema, anime choreography, and suspense-driven storytelling.

The series explores themes of:

- identity and destiny
- inner conflict
- loyalty and betrayal
- supernatural awakening
- the struggle between purpose and survival

Lamar describes the project as “a story about unlocking the power within yourself — even when the world is fighting against you.”

🔗 “5 Lil Penguins” — A Gritty Urban Drama Rooted in Real Alabama Stories

Produced by creator Devonte Ravizee, “5 Lil Penguins” follows the emotional and often dangerous journey of Jaylon Monroe, a young man returning home after his release from jail. The story—rooted in real events from Birmingham, Alabama—captures the raw and authentic experiences of young men navigating survival, street politics, family expectations, and the pursuit of redemption.

The series highlights:

- community conflict
- broken trust and loyalty
- generational pressure
- real-life survival choices
- the emotional cost of street life

The title symbolizes five young men bonded through shared struggle, resilience, and the difficult realities of their environment. Lamar’s involvement brings the project cinematic depth and a powerful connection to authentic Southern storytelling.

🔗 New Amazon Film Role — Lamar Cast as Doctor/Surgeon

In addition to his independent projects, Deonta Lamar has landed a significant supporting role as a doctor/surgeon in an upcoming Amazon film release. His character plays a crucial part in the film's storyline, offering Lamar the opportunity to portray a professional role requiring emotional precision, intensity, and strong dramatic timing.

This marks Lamar's first medical-based role on a major streaming platform and further demonstrates his versatility as an actor capable of tackling complex and serious characters.

"This role is a blessing," Lamar says. "Every opportunity is a step forward. I'm grateful for the chance to show range and represent where I come from."

A Creative Force Committed to Community, Faith, and Representation

Beyond his growing artistic career, Lamar remains dedicated to inspiring others and uplifting his community. He mentors youth, coaches youth basketball, creates motivational content, and uses his platform to encourage discipline, focus, and positive decision-making.

His creative vision is deeply shaped by:

- his Southern upbringing
- faith and personal growth
- his connection to Alabama communities
- his commitment to authenticity in storytelling

Lamar's mission is to open doors for young creators who come from environments where opportunity is limited, reminding them that their voice, story, and creativity matter.

A Breakout Year for a Rising Star

With two major independent projects in development and a streaming-platform acting role underway, Lamar is preparing for a major breakthrough year. Plans for the coming months include:

- official trailers and teasers
- behind-the-scenes footage
- community screenings
- expanded casting announcements
- collaborations with regional creators
- public appearances and interviews
- additional independent and streaming roles

Lamar's blend of talent, passion, work ethic, and community influence cements his place as a rising Southern creative ready to make national impact.

About Deonta Lamar

Deonta Lamar is an Alabama-born actor, filmmaker, digital creator, and community mentor whose work merges Southern storytelling with modern cinematic expression. Raised between Montgomery and Birmingham, Lamar discovered his passion for film, character development, and visual art at a young age, eventually developing a creative style centered on emotional realism, impactful action, and cultural authenticity.

Known across social platforms as @d33blk, Lamar has built a fast-growing audience through visually dynamic editing, dramatic character portrayals, and inspirational content. His film style mixes action cinema, anime-influenced choreography, and raw urban storytelling rooted in his lived experiences.

Lamar has appeared in multiple independent film projects and recently secured a supporting role as a doctor/surgeon in an Amazon-distributed film — marking a major milestone in his acting career. He continues to expand his filmmaking portfolio through original projects such as “Masked Halo” and “5 Lil Penguins,” solidifying his identity as both a creator and performer.

Outside of entertainment, Lamar actively mentors youth, coaches local sports programs, and uses his platform to encourage positivity, discipline, and purpose-driven living. His goal is to represent Alabama proudly while building opportunities for young creators across the Southeast.

Website: <https://sites.google.com/view/deonta-lamar/home>

Instagram: @d33blk

TikTok: @d33blk

YouTube: @d33blk1

Media Contact

Name: Deonta Lamar

Email: deonta.lamar@gmail.com

Location: Birmingham, Alabama

Website: <https://sites.google.com/view/deonta-lamar/home>

Media Contact

deonta lamar

@gmail.com

Source : Deonta Lamar

See on IssueWire