

The Institute for Exceptionalism Strategically Announces Incorporation on International Anti-Corruption Day

Los Angeles, California Dec 9, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - On International Anti-Corruption Day –an official United Nations global observance dedicated to promoting integrity and combating corruption– the Institute for Exceptionalism announces its formal incorporation as EXCEPTIONALISM, SPC; organized under the California Social Purpose Corporations Act.

Why December 9 Matters

International Anti-Corruption Day reminds the world of the urgent need to combat greed, and the political erosion of societal trust. By choosing this date for incorporation, EXCEPTIONALISM, SPC affirms its mission to advance excellence in humanity– for the benefit of all humanity.

Exceptionalism: Antidote to the “Tragedy of The Commons”

Exceptionalism represents the solution to the current destructive political dead-end cycle known as the Tragedy of The Commons: the problem that occurs when individuals are forced to neglect the well-being of society in the pursuit of personal gain as a form of self-protection against systemic Economic Deprivation.

Exceptionalism in Action — Beyond Philosophy

At the heart of Exceptionalism lies the firm and persevering determination to commit to the common good – the good of all and each individual. A virtue directed to serve humanity, instead of oppression and tyranny. This vision is achieved by the Exceptionalism Academy, an American independent education institution dedicated to reverse-engineering the Tragedy of The Commons via an exact process based in science.

Who We Are — Delivering the Promise of The Human Potential

Exceptionalist: A person who envisages that something– often a society, is extraordinary, unique and significant— realizing they have a special role or mission to advance what is extraordinary, unique and significant.
