

Woody Stieffel's Health and Wealth: God's Will or Not? Receives Pacific Book Review Notable Book Seal

A Biblical Examination of the "Health and Wealth" Gospel and Its Claims

Los Angeles, California Dec 3, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Woody Stieffel's Health and Wealth: God's Will or Not? has earned the distinguished Pacific Book Review Notable Book Seal for its insightful and thought-provoking analysis of the "Health and Wealth" gospel, a popular yet controversial teaching within modern Christianity. This award highlights the book's exceptional contribution to biblical studies and its relevance for today's believers.

In Health and Wealth: God's Will or Not?, Stieffel tackles questions many Christians wrestle with: Does God want me to be rich? What does the Bible say about health and wealth? Are miraculous healings still for today? By looking to the Bible as the ultimate standard of truth, Stieffel offers a balanced, scripture-based exploration of these topics.

Written with clarity and compassion, the book debunks common misconceptions about prosperity and healing, helping readers to deepen their faith and align their beliefs with biblical teachings. Stieffel provides thoughtful answers and practical insights that encourage Christians to navigate these complex issues with discernment and spiritual wisdom.

“In contrast to many other publications on related subjects, the author of this book is straightforward, calm, and not overly critical or emotional. He is outspoken in his desire for God to use his book to help people see prosperity in the proper light and with objectivity. He has made a tremendous effort to demonstrate life is about more than chasing the supposedly American goal of becoming rich. His book Health and Wealth: God’s Will or Not? is a fantastic resource and an eye-opener for anybody trapped in prosperity dogmas or just looking to learn more about the phenomena,” reviews Lily Amanda of Pacific Book Review.

Woody Stieffel draws from 47 years of church ministry, including 11 years as a pastor, to address these pressing questions. His dual careers in civil engineering and ministry have given him a unique perspective on balancing spiritual truths with practical life challenges. Inspired by his late father, a published author, Stieffel combines his passion for writing with his mission to guide Christians toward a deeper understanding of God’s will.

Health and Wealth: God’s Will or Not? is available on Amazon and other major platforms. With its Pacific Book Review Notable Book Seal, it stands as a valuable resource for Christians seeking clarity and biblical grounding in their spiritual journey. This award-winning book challenges readers to explore God’s truth and live a faith-filled life.
