

“Bracing for the Impact” by Steven Goodwin Brings Stories of Hope, Humor, and Humanity in a Tumultuous World

Brooksville, Florida Jan 26, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - In a time when the world often feels uncertain and divided, Bracing for The Impact by Steven Goodwin arrives as a heartfelt reminder of what endures: faith, resilience, and the human spirit. With warmth, humility, and gentle humor, Goodwin's latest work offers readers a glimpse into everyday moments that reveal extraordinary meaning.

About the Book

Through a series of true stories and reflections, Bracing for The Impact explores how faith and perspective can transform life's most challenging experiences into opportunities for growth. Drawing from his background as an Army veteran, truck driver, and community mentor, Goodwin shares a tapestry of personal encounters that speak to the strength found in ordinary people facing extraordinary tests.

From close calls on the highway to quiet acts of compassion, each chapter offers an honest look at the struggles and triumphs that shape us. Grounded in Christian values yet universal in message, the book blends storytelling, moral insight, and humor to remind readers that grace often appears when we least expect it.

At its heart, Bracing for The Impact is not about avoiding hardship—but about meeting it with courage, gratitude, and hope.

About the Author

Steven Goodwin is a storyteller shaped by experience, faith, and an unwavering belief in the value of everyday moments. A retired truck driver and Army veteran, he has spent a lifetime on the open road both literally and spiritually learning what it means to serve, persevere, and trust in something greater.

Known for his approachable style and heartfelt honesty, Goodwin writes with the ease of someone talking across a kitchen table. His essays, many featured in the Hernando Sun newspaper, connect with readers through humor, humility, and a genuine desire to help others find light in difficult times.

With Bracing for The Impact, Goodwin continues the conversation he began in his earlier book, Keeping My Balance, encouraging readers to see purpose in challenges and to live with faith, gratitude, and grace. He lives in Florida with his wife, Cecelia his closest companion and greatest source of encouragement.

Availability

Bracing for The Impact is published by Reilly & Britton and is available in both print and digital editions through major online retailers and local bookstores.

For interviews, speaking engagements, or media inquiries, Steven Goodwin is available to discuss his work and the inspiration behind his writing.

Book Link: <https://a.co/d/0H9hn2F>

Media Contact

Reilly & Britton

*****@reillyandbritton.com

+1-332-334-6687

Source : Reilly and Britton

See on IssueWire