

GRANDEMUSIC Turns Atmosphere into Feeling in New Releases

One of the most talented musicians, GRANDEMUSIC has released two melodic ambient pieces built on emotions. 'Liminal Drift' and 'Touch' are streaming on Spotify.

Carmel, Jan 2, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Ambient music has always lived in the background, and only a few artists could do justice to it. GRANDEMUSIC is one such artist who has brought the music to the front, with emotions being carried in every bit. He has released two brand new songs called 'Liminal Drift' and 'Touch', and both songs prove that he has come down with years of experience and an interest in experimentation on his side. Both songs are built for space and reflection, taking the listeners on a journey they will never forget.

The track 'Liminal Drift' unfolds patiently as its composition relies on evolving synth layers that move in soft waves. The melody stays subtle but steady throughout the entire song, which gives the song a sense of direction. When it comes to the song's production, silence plays an important role here. It allows the music to breathe and lets the listener settle into their own thoughts. On the other hand, 'Touch' shifts the focus inward. The song carries a warmer tone and a more intimate melodic line. The harmonies on the composition feel familiar, almost like something remembered rather than heard for the first time. Both songs have no lyrics or vocals to guide interpretation. However, instead of being an obstacle, this absence becomes powerful, working in favor of the artist.

Behind GRANDEMUSIC is Frank Grande, an art director and composer whose career spans film, television, and major productions. After years of creating pieces for clients, this new chapter is personal, far more intimate. These songs are for him, reflecting his choices and intentions beautifully. Listen to the records on Spotify along with some of his previous records, such as 'Siren's Call', 'Up to the Edge', 'Seven Down', 'Viennese', etc. Follow the artist on Facebook and Instagram for more updates.
