Janean Meyer: Your Trusted Realtor in Reno and Southern Nevada

Reno, Nevada Jan 2, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Janean Meyer, a licensed Realtor with LPT Realty, LLC, and a valued member of The Simmons Team, is proud to serve clients across Reno and Southern Nevada, including Pahrump, Las Vegas, and Henderson. With a passion for real estate and a commitment to her clients, Janean is dedicated to guiding individuals through every stage of their real estate transactions, ensuring that their best interests are always prioritized.

Growing up in a military family, Janean has a unique perspective on the challenges of relocation, timing, and the need for flexibility. This background makes her particularly adept at assisting military families with both short- and long-term housing needs, providing the understanding and support they require during these transitions. Additionally, Janean has extensive experience working with senior clients, offering clear explanations of market conditions, potential risks, and the various options available to empower them to make confident, informed decisions.

Janean combines her real estate expertise with a strong academic background, holding a Bachelor's Degree in Information Technology and a Project Management Certification. This unique combination of skills enables her to approach the real estate market with an analytical mindset, attention to detail, and a commitment to education. Clients can rely on Janean to help them evaluate neighborhoods, properties, and market trends with clarity and confidence.

Known for her dependability, resilience, and unwavering focus on client satisfaction, Janean ensures that every client feels informed, supported, and treated fairly throughout their real estate journey. Her dedication to her profession is matched by a deep commitment to her community, where she actively gives back through her involvement with the Elk Lodge and by supporting local dog rescue organizations.

Outside of work, Janean enjoys spending time with her family and caring for her three beloved dogs. She is currently writing a book titled On the Edge of a Smile, which aims to help readers navigate the emotional challenges that often accompany life's most difficult experiences.
