Guiding Home Buyers and Sellers with Integrity and Local Expertise

Richardson, Texas Jan 9, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Jim Koch, a licensed Texas Realtor® with Ebby Halliday, REALTORS® - Williams Trew Real Estate, is proud to announce his commitment to providing exceptional real estate services to buyers and sellers in Richardson and the surrounding areas. With over two decades of residency in Richardson, Jim combines deep local insight with a client-focused approach, ensuring successful outcomes in every real estate transaction.

Before venturing into residential real estate, Jim cultivated a diverse career in business development, real estate development, and operational leadership. His professional journey began as a sales engineer in the B2B manufacturing sector, and he later excelled as an operating partner and general manager for several large-scale sports facilities, including the Ice Training Center in Richardson and The Sportsplex in Dallas. Recently, his focus has shifted towards supporting social enterprises, particularly those dedicated to aiding adults with autism, showcasing his commitment to community engagement and social responsibility.

Born in Richardson and raised in Houston, Jim graduated from Southern Methodist University with a Bachelor of Science in Engineering Management. He and his wife, Marita, proudly raised their three children in Richardson, further solidifying their ties to this vibrant community. Known for his integrity, transparency, and unwavering work ethic, Jim strives to make the buying and selling process as seamless and informed as possible for both first-time homebuyers and seasoned investors.

Jim specializes in various areas, including buyer representation, listing services, relocation, and assisting first-time homebuyers. His extensive focus areas encompass Richardson, Dallas, Fort Worth, Carrollton, Plano, Garland, Rowlett, Bedford, Forney, and Double Oak, ensuring that he can meet the diverse needs of clients throughout the region.

What Jim enjoys most about real estate is the opportunity to strengthen neighborhoods by helping individuals and families find stability, opportunity, and a sense of belonging in their community. He attributes his success to a strong foundation of honesty, integrity, hard work, and a genuine passion for empowering clients to navigate significant life decisions with confidence and trust.
