

Lisa Byank, MS, CCC-SLP, honored by America's Best in Medicine, changes lives at Love Speech Language in Phoenix, MD

Combining Clinical Expertise with Compassionate Care to Empower Communication

Annapolis, Maryland Jan 12, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Love Speech Language, LLC is proud to announce its official launch under the leadership of Lisa Byank, MS, CCC-SLP. With years of experience as a speech language pathologist in various healthcare settings, Lisa is committed to providing high-quality, personalized speech therapy services that address the unique needs of individuals of all ages.

Lisa's extensive background includes work at renowned institutions such as Children's National Hospital, Scottish Rite Center for Childhood Language Disorders, and Mercy Medical Center. Her expertise spans pediatrics, acute care, healthcare management, clinical research, and evaluations. Certified in Basic Life Support (BLS), Lisa integrates her clinical knowledge with a heartfelt approach, ensuring that clients receive not only expert treatment but also emotional support throughout their journey to better communication.

The inspiration behind Love Speech Language, LLC stems from Lisa's personal experiences. Growing up in a family that prioritized health and wellness, her passion for communication sciences was solidified by her grandfather's struggle with Parkinson's disease. Witnessing the transformative impact of speech therapy on quality of life ignited her dedication to the field. Lisa holds a Master of Science in Speech-Language Pathology from Howard University and a Bachelor of Science degree from Boston College, where she double majored in Human Development and Communications.

In addition to her professional pursuits, Lisa is a dedicated mother and an animal lover who enjoys exploring culinary arts and practicing yoga. With over 500 hours of yoga teacher training, she incorporates mindfulness and holistic practices into her therapeutic work, emphasizing the connection between mind, body, and spirit. This unique approach not only enhances her clients' communication skills but also fosters their overall well-being.

Love Speech Language, LLC specializes in telehealth services, pediatric speech and language disorders, and neurological and cognitive-communication disorders. Lisa is also actively involved in philanthropic initiatives, supporting organizations like the Michael J. Fox Foundation and local animal shelters.
