

Lisa T. Miller Launches Strategic Healthcare Advisory Platform to Help Executives Drive Growth and C-Suite Alignment

Palm Beach Gardens, Florida Jan 31, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Lisa T. Miller, a healthcare growth strategist, advisor, and entrepreneur, announces the continued expansion of her strategic advisory platform, <https://www.lisatmiller.com/>, designed to support healthcare executives, founders, and life science organizations in navigating growth, innovation, and executive-level decision making.

With more than 30 years of experience in healthcare leadership, Lisa is best known as the founder of VIE Healthcare Consulting, a firm that helped hospitals save over $1 billion in unnecessary costs before being acquired by Morgan Stanley Capital Partners in 2022. Her work has positioned her as a trusted advisor to C-suite leaders across health systems, medtech, and healthcare services organizations.

Through <https://www.lisatmiller.com/>, Lisa provides executive advisory services, strategic growth consulting, and education-based frameworks focused on helping organizations effectively engage senior decision makers, commercialize innovation, and improve market positioning. Her approach emphasizes value articulation, outcome-driven strategy, and executive alignment in complex healthcare environments.

“Healthcare leaders are facing unprecedented pressure to grow revenue, manage costs, and make high-stakes decisions quickly,” said Lisa. “My work is focused on helping leaders and organizations communicate value clearly, align strategy with outcomes, and move forward with confidence.”

Services offered through the platform include executive advisory and coaching, healthcare entrepreneurship strategy, C-suite selling frameworks for healthcare and life science companies, and customized workshops and keynote presentations. These offerings are designed to help organizations shorten sales cycles, strengthen executive relationships, and create sustainable growth strategies.

In addition to her advisory work, Lisa is a recognized thought leader and author on healthcare sales, strategy, and executive engagement. Her insights are widely used by healthcare leaders seeking practical guidance in an evolving and highly competitive market.
