

NYC Comedian Rafael Gee Announces Memoir “Mi Vida Loca: Tales of a NuyoRican”

A heartfelt memoir exploring identity, resilience, and growing up Nuyorican in New York City

New York City, New York Jan 14, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Comedian and storyteller Rafael Gee announces the release of his debut memoir, Mi Vida Loca: Tales of a NuyoRican, scheduled for release on January 31, 2026.

Known for his honest, high-energy stand-up and deeply personal storytelling, Gee delivers an unfiltered narrative about growing up Nuyorican in New York City, navigating identity, family, setbacks, and finding purpose through comedy. The memoir blends humor with raw reflection, offering readers a powerful story of resilience and reinvention.

Mi Vida Loca: Tales of a NuyoRican is both a personal journey and a cultural reflection, capturing the realities of life in New York and the strength required to rise after adversity. Gee shares moments of struggle and triumph with the same authenticity that has earned him recognition on comedy stages across the country.

The book's release follows a sold-out live taping of Gee's comedy special Ricanstruction: Not Just a Comeback — It's Ricanstruction, which is currently in post-production.

The memoir will be available in paperback and Kindle editions upon release.
