

Punjabi Singer Harvy Sandhu, born in Punjab's Hoshiarpur district and now based in Toronto

Brampton, Ontario Jan 31, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Punjabi Artist Harvy Sandhu Recognized for Cultural Storytelling and Musical Foundation

Punjabi artist Harvy Sandhu is an independent musician whose work reflects a deep connection to Punjabi culture, education in the arts, and lived experiences across continents. Born and raised in Punjab's Hoshiarpur district, Sandhu's artistic journey is shaped by both his roots and his global perspective.

Harvy Sandhu completed his Master's degree in Music from APJ College of Fine Arts, Jalandhar, where he developed a strong foundation in musical theory, composition, and performance. He later earned a Master's degree in Multimedia from Lovely Professional University, Jalandhar, combining artistic creativity with modern digital media skills.

His academic background has played a significant role in shaping his approach to music, allowing him to blend traditional Punjabi storytelling with contemporary production sensibilities. This balance between classical understanding and modern expression has become a defining aspect of his artistic identity.

Sandhu gained wider recognition through well-received tracks such as "Banner" and "Baapu," which connected strongly with audiences for their emotional depth and cultural relevance. These works contributed to his reputation as an artist focused on authenticity, family values, and heritage-driven narratives.

Currently based in Toronto, Canada, Harvy Sandhu continues to build his presence as an independent Punjabi artist, reaching listeners across Canada, India, and the wider Punjabi diaspora. His work represents a modern generation of musicians who preserve cultural identity while engaging with a global audience.

Media Contact

HARVY SANDHU

@outlook.com

Source : Harvy Sandhu

See on IssueWire