A New Breed of Darkness

The narrative arc of The Moon's Curse trilogy takes readers on an enthralling journey through fractured worlds and complex moral dilemmas:

- Awakening (Book One)

This debut novel marks the beginning of the journey, pulling readers into a world of dark rituals and ancient mysteries. It introduces the Nythrall while exploring humanity's deepest impulses and the irresistible draw of the mystical.

- Descent (Book Two)

The stakes escalate as the battle for survival intensifies. Exploring themes of courage, sacrifice, and hope, Descent follows the characters as they brave the shadows in search of the light. The story builds toward a pivotal question: will they rise against the chaos, or will the world fall to the Blood Moon?

- Blood Moon (Book Three — forthcoming)

The trilogy will conclude with The Moon's Curse: Blood Moon, scheduled for release in early 2026. The final installment promises a climactic reckoning as long-buried truths surface and the true cost of moon-bound power is revealed. As the Blood Moon rises, the fate of the world—and those bound to the Nythrall—will be decided.
