

The Epic of God Explores Biblical History, Prophecy, and Eternity Through a Speculative Fiction Narrative

Australian Capital Territory, Australia Jan 12, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Books To Life Marketing proudly presents The Epic of God by Louis McCall—a sweeping work of Biblical Historical Fiction that boldly reimagines the greatest story ever told by placing God Himself as the central protagonist. Spanning from eternity past to eternity future, this thought-provoking narrative invites readers to encounter God not only as Creator and Savior, but as the eternal hero whose unending love weaves all of history, creation, and destiny together.

In The Epic of God, McCall offers a speculative yet deeply reverent account of God's redemptive story, grounded in Biblical history, scriptural hints, and prophecy. Brought vividly to life through the perspective of a watcher angel, the narrative knits together divine moments across time, offering readers a fresh, imaginative lens through which to reflect on Scripture, faith, and God's enduring relationship with humankind. Though fictional in form, the book remains faithful to the heart of Biblical truth, exploring what could have been from before creation to the very end of time.

The book has received strong praise from faith leaders, including Evangelist Daniel Kolenda, President of Christ for All Nations, who writes:

*“Louis McCall wonderfully illustrates God’s Epic. God’s story—His epic—is the story of our own. It’s the story that involves all of creation. Although fictitious, The Epic of God carries the truth of the heart of God for all of us and answers questions of what things could have been like from the beginning of time before creation all the way to the very end of time itself.”*

Quote from the Author:

“Great men and women come and go in their short lives, but God is eternal. His love for His creation of humankind, though tried, is unfailing. He is the unbroken thread that ties everything together.”

About the Author

Dr. Louis McCall has written several fictional works of Christian biography inspired by Biblical history and informed by a lifetime of global experience. Born in Chicago, Illinois, he earned his Ph.D. in Political Science from Northwestern University and later attended the National War College of the National Defense University.

Before embarking on a distinguished 36-year career with the U.S. Department of State, Dr. McCall served as an Assistant Professor of Political Science at The Ohio State University. His diplomatic career included roles as Consul General in Florence, Italy; Chargé d’Affaires in Brunei; U.S. Representative to the Republic of San Marino; and Assistant Inspector General. Over the course of his service, he lived in or worked in more than 60 countries across six continents.

Throughout his professional life, Dr. McCall consistently lived out his faith—ministering the Gospel through preaching, music, and collaboration with missionaries, national church leaders, and the underground church. In his final two years at the State Department, he organized and led the National Day of Prayer observances within the Department.

Now in his calling as an author, Dr. McCall enjoys greater freedom to share what God has placed in his heart. He is active in two Washington, DC churches—a multi-site non-denominational church and a Catholic church where he serves as a regular cantor—reflecting a lifelong commitment to unity within the Body of Christ.
