Yolanda Washington: A Leading Voice in Rochester's Real Estate Market

Rochester, New York Jan 8, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Yolanda Washington, a licensed Realtor® with Summerrain Realty Group, LLC, is making significant strides in the Rochester real estate market. With a passion for guiding clients through every phase of real estate transactions, Yolanda emphasizes strategic negotiations, clear communication, and meticulous contract execution, always prioritizing her clients' best interests.

Holding an active New York State real estate license, Yolanda specializes in multifamily properties and real estate development. Her hands-on experience as an investor has equipped her with the knowledge necessary to deliver informed, results-driven representation. Yolanda's journey into real estate began with investing alongside her husband. They identified undervalued properties, successfully rehabilitated them, and developed a keen understanding of valuation, renovation, and long-term investment strategies.

With over eight years of combined experience in real estate investing and sales, Yolanda has been licensed for three years. Her success is rooted in a strong educational foundation coupled with practical experience, trusted industry relationships, and advanced skills in property valuation and developmental rehabilitation analysis.

Beyond her brokerage responsibilities, Yolanda is dedicated to advocacy and leadership within the real estate profession. She actively lobbies annually on real estate-related issues in New York State and holds leadership roles within the National Association of Real Estate Brokers (NAREB), co-chairing the Housing Justice and Public Policies Committee in the Rochester chapter. Yolanda is committed to staying informed about industry trends and policies, regularly attending both state and national events. Her selection for the 2026 New York State Association of REALTORS® (NYSAR) Leadership Academy is a testament to her dedication to professional growth and her desire to serve the community.

In a bid to further educate and empower investors, Yolanda is preparing to publish her upcoming book, "Do's & Don'ts of Real Estate Investments." This practical resource aims to provide investors with insights into smart decision-making, risk management, and effective strategies for long-term success in the real estate market.

Yolanda Washington is not only a Realtor® but a dedicated advocate for her clients and the community. With her expertise and commitment, she is poised to make a lasting impact on the Rochester real estate landscape.
