

Caitlin B. Iorio, MD, Recognized by America's Best in Medicine for Excellence as CEO of Kismet Iorio Surgical in Utah

Merging Precision, Artistry, and Compassionate Care to Deliver Naturally Beautiful, Transformative Outcomes

Salt Lake City, Utah Feb 3, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Caitlin B. Iorio, MD, is a board-certified otolaryngologist (ENT), head and neck surgeon, and distinguished facial plastic and reconstructive surgeon, recognized for her exceptional expertise in both functional and aesthetic procedures. As the CEO of Kismet Iorio Surgical Sculpting in Salt Lake City, Utah, she skillfully integrates medical necessity with cosmetic vision, ensuring outcomes that are both beautiful and medically sound. Affiliated with multiple hospitals in the region, Dr. Iorio is celebrated for her precision, empathy, and patient-centered approach, earning her a reputation as a trusted leader in facial plastic and reconstructive surgery.

At her clinic, Dr. Iorio fosters an environment where artistry meets science. Known for her meticulous attention to detail, she prioritizes individualized treatment plans that align with each patient's unique anatomical needs and aesthetic goals. Her philosophy emphasizes enhancing both appearance and confidence, making transformative procedures safe, effective, and deeply personal.

A native of Lancaster, South Carolina, Dr. Iorio built an exemplary academic and clinical foundation. She earned a Bachelor's Degree in Biology with a minor in Medical Humanities from the University of South Carolina Honors College, where she first engaged in humanitarian medical work during a trip to Haiti, caring for orphans after a devastating hurricane. She went on to complete her Medical Degree at the Medical University of South Carolina, earning multiple merit-based scholarships, an NIH grant for research in endoscopic skull base surgery, and serving as an anatomy tutor for nursing students.

Dr. Iorio completed her rigorous five-year surgical residency in otolaryngology at the University of Virginia in Charlottesville, Virginia. Under the mentorship of world-renowned facial plastic surgeon Dr. Stephen S. Park, former President of the American Academy of Facial Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery (AAFPRS), she honed her skills in cosmetic and reconstructive facial surgery. During residency, Dr. Iorio received multiple research awards and launched a wellness initiative for her program, reflecting her commitment to leadership and community within medicine.

Dr. Iorio completed her subspecialty fellowship in facial plastic and reconstructive surgery under Dr. P. Daniel Ward in Salt Lake City, where she established a lasting personal and professional community. Her upbringing in a family of strong, hardworking women instilled resilience, dedication, and a compassionate approach to patient care. Her lifelong passion for the arts—including dance, music, and painting—imbues her surgical practice with creativity, allowing her to approach each procedure as both science and art.

Outside of surgery, Dr. Iorio enjoys snowboarding, skiing, skydiving, running, hiking, and water sports, as well as traveling, attending concerts, and spending time with friends and family. She actively volunteers with Leaps of Hope and Bless Back Worldwide, reflecting her commitment to service and advancing healthcare globally.

Dr. Caitlin B. Iorio's unique combination of technical expertise, artistic vision, and empathetic care positions her as a trusted surgeon in both functional and cosmetic facial procedures. Her passion for life, artistry, and the transformative potential of surgery makes her a standout physician and a leader patients can rely on for safe, exceptional, and life-enhancing outcomes.
