Christy Stanley: Your Trusted REALTOR® in Cary and the Greater Triangle Area

Cary, North Carolina Feb 13, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Christy Stanley, an esteemed REALTOR® with Fathom Realty, is dedicated to serving buyers and sellers in Cary and the greater Triangle area of North Carolina. With over eight years of experience in the local real estate market, Christy expertly guides her clients through each step of the real estate process, ensuring their best interests are always prioritized. Her extensive background includes renovations, infill projects, house flipping, new construction, land development, and resale properties, equipping her with a comprehensive understanding of both the practical and investment aspects of real estate.

Known for her hands-on approach, Christy integrates her expertise in marketing, branding, photography, and project management to effectively position properties on the market. By leveraging her experience in managing remodeling projects and new construction timelines, she provides invaluable insights into property condition, design potential, and value optimization, empowering her clients to make informed decisions.

Christy's commitment to professionalism, integrity, and client-focused service ensures smooth and well-executed transactions. With six years of plumbing experience, she possesses a deep familiarity with the new construction process, making her a reliable resource for clients navigating the complexities of real estate. As a successful project manager for remodeling projects and residential flips, Christy guarantees that timelines, budgets, and quality standards are consistently met.

Licensed in North Carolina, Christy operates in accordance with state regulations, Fair Housing standards, and the REALTOR® Code of Ethics. Her experience working with top real estate teams, as well as independently, enables her to offer personalized service backed by strong industry connections. This approach helps clients confidently achieve their real estate goals, whether they are buying their first home or selling a cherished property.

Christy attributes her success to her extensive knowledge of construction and flipping, exceptional listing marketing as a true "property promoter," and a strong vision for each property's potential. Her client-first approach, rooted in active listening, clear communication, and a genuine passion for her community, sets her apart in a competitive market.

Outside of real estate, Christy enjoys spending time with her husband and their four children, as well as their five granddaughters. Her personal interests in farming, cooking, fishing, home design, and landscaping allow her to help clients envision not just a home, but a lifestyle.
