

Devin Sponseller, DO, Recognized by America's Best in Medicine for Excellence in Vascular Surgery

Board-Certified Surgeon at Banner North Colorado Medical Center Providing Patient-Centered Care with a Focus on Trust, Communication, and Holistic Healing

Greeley, Colorado Feb 13, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Devin Sponseller, DO, a Board-Certified General Surgeon and Vascular Surgeon, is making significant strides in the medical community of Greeley, Colorado, with her extensive experience and dedication to patient-centered care. With over nine years of expertise, Dr. Sponseller practices at Banner North Colorado Medical Center, providing advanced vascular surgical services to patients in Greeley and Loveland.

Dr. Sponseller specializes in a comprehensive range of vascular procedures, including the treatment of arterial aneurysms, peripheral arterial disease, and carotid artery disease, as well as performing carotid artery stent placements and managing atherosclerosis. Her proficiency also extends to varicose vein treatment and advanced imaging techniques such as vascular duplex ultrasonography and plethysmography. Patients commend her for her clinical precision combined with a heartfelt approach to care, embodying a practice philosophy that prioritizes the well-being of each individual.

After earning her Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine Degree at Lincoln Memorial University – DeBusk College of Osteopathic Medicine in 2016, Dr. Sponseller completed her residency in general surgery at Hackensack Meridian Health-Palisades Medical Center in 2021. She further honed her skills during a fellowship at Michigan State University – Butterworth Hospital/Spectrum Health, which she completed in 2023. She is board-certified and licensed to practice in Colorado, Wyoming, and Michigan, with affiliations to several Banner Health facilities, including Banner North Colorado Medical Center, Banner Fort Collins Medical Center, and Banner McKee Medical Center.

Dr. Sponseller expresses her passion for medicine, saying, “What I enjoy most about practicing medicine is the people, the culture, and the team. I find great fulfillment in building meaningful relationships with patients, collaborating with dedicated colleagues, and working within a supportive environment that values compassion, growth, and teamwork.” Her commitment to surgical excellence underscores her goal of improving patient outcomes and advancing vascular health in her community.

Beyond her clinical practice, Dr. Sponseller is an Adjunct Faculty Member at the University of Northern Colorado Osteopathic Medical School and Faculty Preceptor at Rocky Vista Osteopathic Medical School, where she inspires future healthcare professionals. Her commitment to lifelong learning is evident through her engagement with the Journal of Vascular Surgery. In her free time, she enjoys outdoor activities such as camping, fishing, and cycling, along with weightlifting and jeep adventures.

Dr. Devin Sponseller is not only a skilled surgeon but also a compassionate advocate for patient care and community health, reflecting a perfect blend of clinical expertise and heartfelt dedication in her career.
