All releases are available now on Youtube and Apple music.

In a playful moment inspired by Preston's sci-fi book The Hifian Upload, which features rapping animals from Mars, she asked GDEP what animal best represents him as a musician. His answer: the immortal jellyfish. He explained that his music is like that creature's essence impossible to destroy, endlessly renewing, and destined to live on. "There's no way to smash my music," he joked. "You just have to live with it. I'm an immortal universal musician, and my music will continue." Preston agreed wholeheartedly.

GDEP's momentum continues with a two-page feature in the February 2026 magazine of Kingship Hip Hop Magazine, offering fans an even deeper look at his artistry, philosophy, and creative journey.
