

Jahi Bosedá Recognized By America's Best In Medicine For Integrative Healing And Leadership In Mental Health Care

Seasoned Counselor Combines Spiritual Practice, Clinical Expertise, and Compassionate Support for Lasting Change

Kansas City, Missouri Feb 23, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Jahi Bosedá, BA, CRADC, MARS, is a dedicated Licensed Practitioner (RScP) and highly respected Mental Health and Substance Abuse Counselor serving the Kansas City community. With more than 15 years of professional experience, Jahi is known for his integrative approach to care—blending spiritual practice, evidence-based counseling, and compassionate communication to support whole-person healing.

Committed to guiding individuals through life's most difficult transitions, Jahi helps clients develop clarity, resilience, and emotional balance. His work supports those facing mental health challenges, substance use recovery, and deeply rooted emotional patterns, always with an emphasis on empowerment and sustainable growth. Clients frequently describe his presence as steady, intuitive, and deeply grounding.

Since serving as a counselor and owner with MBSS Counseling Group, Jahi has earned a strong reputation for creating safe, supportive environments where individuals feel respected and understood. His practice integrates clinical methodologies with principles of spiritual psychology, enabling clients to reconnect with their inner strength while building practical tools for meaningful, long-term change.

Beyond his clinical expertise, Jahi brings a rich professional background in communication and customer service, developed through years of working with diverse populations. These skills enhance his ability to build trust, foster open dialogue, and tailor his approach to each individual's unique needs. His experience as a former Talk Show Host further contributes to a broad, adaptable mindset and a solutions-oriented approach to problem-solving.

Deeply committed to service and community impact, Jahi continues to expand his work beyond individual counseling. He is driven by a belief that healing is transformative—not only for individuals, but for families and communities as a whole. Through his integrative practice and ongoing dedication to empowerment, Jahi Boseda remains a trusted guide for those seeking wellness, recovery, and meaningful personal transformation.
