Karen Moutry-Pelham: A Trusted Real Estate Expert in Anchorage, Alaska

Anchorage, Alaska Feb 17, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Karen Moutry-Pelham, an Associate Broker and Rental Manager with 61 North Realty, LLC, is proud to celebrate nearly twenty years of experience in the real estate industry. As a lifelong Alaskan, Karen possesses a profound understanding of the local market and its unique dynamics, allowing her to provide clients with knowledgeable and reliable service at every stage of their real estate transactions.

In her role at 61 North Realty, Karen leads the rental management division and oversees homeowners association management, ensuring that each property is managed with structure, efficiency, and professionalism. Her extensive background in property management equips her to skillfully navigate negotiations, contracts, and day-to-day responsibilities while always prioritizing the best interests of her clients. Whether working with buyers, sellers, or property owners, Karen's attention to detail and steady guidance allow her clients to proceed with confidence in their real estate endeavors.

Karen is known for her relationship-focused approach, viewing herself as a trusted consultant rather than just a salesperson. "I believe in clear communication and informed decision-making," she says. "My goal is to ensure long-term success for both property owners and tenants." This dedication to service, combined with her deep market knowledge, enables her clients to achieve their real estate goals seamlessly.

What sets Karen apart is her contagious sense of humor and genuine passion for her work. Grounded in honesty, respect, and integrity, she firmly believes that everyone should have the opportunity to experience the beauty and potential that Alaska has to offer. Her commitment to her clients and community is evident in her active volunteer work, where she helps others discover the unique opportunities and sense of community that make Alaska a remarkable place to call home.

In her downtime, Karen enjoys traveling to warmer climates for a quick recharge before diving back into her work.

With her unwavering commitment to excellence and community engagement, Karen Moutry-Pelham continues to be a leading figure in Anchorage's real estate market, helping clients navigate their journeys with confidence and care.
