Kolleen Schmitt: A Veteran REALTOR® Committed to Serving the Berkshire Community

Ashland, Massachusetts Feb 4, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Berkshire County, Massachusetts – Kolleen Schmitt, a dedicated REALTOR® with Keller Williams Realty Pioneer Valley, is making waves in the Berkshire County real estate market. With over two decades of experience licensed in both Massachusetts, Kolleen expertly guides buyers and sellers through the intricate processes of negotiation, contract execution, and successful closings. Her commitment to clear communication and strategic guidance ensures that her clients' best interests are always at the forefront.

A retired U.S. Coast Guard Chief Warrant Officer, Kolleen brings a unique perspective to her real estate career. After serving her country for 22 honorable years, she transitioned into the real estate industry, leveraging her extensive knowledge and experience in navigating relocations. Having moved multiple times herself, Kolleen understands the challenges that come with buying and selling homes across state lines, making her an invaluable resource for her clients. As a certified Military Relocation Professional (MRP), she has a deep understanding of VA loans and is dedicated to serving veterans and military families in their housing needs.

Since returning to Massachusetts and actively selling real estate in Berkshire County since 2009, Kolleen has established herself as a trusted expert in residential and rural properties. Her full-time, hands-on approach to real estate ensures that each client receives personalized service tailored to their specific goals and circumstances. Kolleen's disciplined service, clear communication, and unwavering commitment to her clients have been the cornerstones of her success in the competitive real estate market.

In addition to her professional accomplishments, Kolleen is passionate about the outdoors. She enjoys alpine sports and equestrian activities, reflecting her love for the mountains and rural lifestyle that she embodies. Family is the heart of her life; Kolleen is a proud mother of three adult children, a wonderful daughter-in-law, and the adoring grandmother of two delightful granddaughters. She has been married to her soulmate, Carl, since 1989, and together they cherish a life filled with love, adventure, and shared experiences.
