

Pulteney Bridge Flowers Starts Same-Day Flower Delivery in Bradford-on-Avon

Pulteney Bridge Flowers now offers same-day flower delivery to homes and businesses in Bradford-on-Avon.

Bath, England Feb 9, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Pulteney Bridge Flowers now offers same-day flower delivery to homes and businesses in Bradford-on-Avon. This Bath florist has been open since 1984. Local people can order fresh flowers online or by phone. They deliver the same afternoon if you order before 3 PM. Drivers cover the town and nearby areas.

The shop sits right on the Pulteney Bridge, a stone bridge over the River Avon that people walk across every day. Founder Vivian Perry got a grant from the Prince's Trust to open it. Today, the team runs two places: the bridge shop and Anemone at Milsom Place. Anemone stays open seven days, but you can find cut flowers, potted plants, and dry bunches that last longer at both shops. They pick fresh stock each day from markets.

Quick and Trusty Delivery

Pulteney Bridge Flowers covers Bath fully and reaches out 10 miles around. Their new Bradford-on-Avon route means faster service for that area. Staff pick the freshest flowers each morning and wrap every order by hand. They drop off at homes, offices, and places like Thermae Bath Spa. For sad times like funerals, they talk with families and funeral homes to make simple, fitting displays.

People know them best for wedding work after 40 years in business. They set up bouquets, table centres, and archways for small or large days. Shoppers like the bridge location for quick stops, even on wet days, and note the nice mix of fresh and dried options.

How to Order Flowers

Go to pulteneybridgeflowers.co.uk to see photos and prices. The site has a page just for Bradford-on-Avon delivery with clear steps. Choose birthday mixes, thank-you stems, or anniversary roses. Add a note, pick a time, and pay online. The team will call if needed to match your idea. Prices stay fair, and they focus on real customer needs over fancy extras.

This update helps Bradford-on-Avon folks skip trips to Bath for quality blooms. Local reviews call them reliable, with one saying deliveries always arrive on time and look better than pictures. The florist keeps stock fresh daily from trusted growers.

About Pulteney Bridge Flowers

Pulteney Bridge Flowers began in 1984 when founder Vivian Perry got a start-up grant from the Prince's Trust. From a small idea, it grew into a go-to Bath florist with strong community ties. The team handles daily orders, events, and specials with care. They serve Bath, Bradford-on-Avon, and spots in between from their Bridge Shop and Milsons Place spot. Open six days a week in Bath, they aim to bring joy through flowers every time. Contact them at the store or online for your next bunch.

Media Contact

Pulteney Bridge Flowers

@pulteneybridgeflowers.co.uk

01225461938

14 Pulteney Bridge, Bath, BA2 4AY, UK

Source : Pulteney Bridge Flowers

See on IssueWire