With a career spanning more than three decades,

Ruth has established herself as a premier authority in representing buyers, sellers, and investors across residential, luxury, and commercial sectors.

Licensed in New York since 1990, Ruth offers clients a sophisticated advantage in navigating the high-stakes landscapes of Queens, Brooklyn, the Bronx, Manhattan, and Nassau County. Renowned for her rigorous negotiation tactics and contract expertise, she remains steadfast in her mission to protect client interests from the initial consultation to the final closing.

Ruth's professional journey is rooted in a powerhouse financial background. Before emigrating from Peru, she completed five years of intensive study at Universidad Inca Garcilaso de la Vega in Lima, earning her Accounting degree and passing the CPA examination at the age of 21. Upon arriving in the United States, she furthered her technical acumen through advanced coursework in Computer Information Systems at Baruch College.

This unique blend of financial and analytical rigor propelled her through the corporate ranks, rising from Controller to Marketing Manager at General Development Corporation before she transitioned into real estate leadership with industry giants Century 21 Metalios and RE/MAX Metro III. In 2004, she channeled this wealth of experience into the founding of Best Team Realty, a firm now synonymous with integrity and results-driven service.

Beyond her accolades, Ruth is a dedicated community advocate who has empowered over 1,000 families to achieve homeownership and build generational wealth.
