

Solaire Resort Entertainment City and Solaire Resort North Honored by Forbes Travel Guide's 2026 Star Award

Manila, Luzon Feb 12, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Solaire Resort Entertainment City's Sky Tower has once again been awarded the prestigious Forbes Travel Guide Five-Star rating, marking a decade of consecutive recognition in the 2026 Forbes Travel Guide Star Awards. This milestone reflects the property's unwavering commitment to world-class facilities, excellent service standards, and genuine Filipino hospitality, reinforcing its position as a benchmark for luxury hospitality in the Philippines.

"We are grateful to receive this Five-Star Excellence Award, which reflects the collective passion, dedication, and hard work of our team members in delivering the highest standards of hospitality," said Gregory Hawkins, President and Chief Operating Officer of Bloomberry Resorts Corporation. "This inspires us to raise the bar to ensure that every visit at Solaire Resort Entertainment City is nothing short of extraordinary."

As the first Filipino luxury integrated resort, Solaire Resort Entertainment City delivers experiences that balance opulence and comfort. Every element, from personalized service, award-winning dining, world-class entertainment as well as luxury wellness offerings, is designed to elevate the guest journey.

"Our continued Five-Star recognition reaffirms our unwavering focus on service excellence and attention to detail throughout the resort,” said David Batchelor, Senior Vice President for Resort Operations. “It is the commitment, professionalism, and Filipino warmth of our team members that allow us to deliver experiences that consistently surpass expectations.”

Set on an expansive 8.3-hectare property just minutes from Manila’s key business and heritage districts, the resort offers sweeping views of the iconic Manila Bay from its Sky Tower. Guests can enjoy world-class facilities, including a 72-meter outdoor swimming pool, private cabañas, a premium fitness center, salon, and jacuzzi designed for complete relaxation. Complementing these include luxurious spa treatments, and the new Solaire Sports Club that offers pickleball, padel courts as well as golf simulators. Guests can also enjoy unique leisure experiences at the Sky Range Shooting Club.

The resort offers versatile event spaces, including a 1,000-seat pillarless Grand Ballroom and 15 function rooms, making it a premier destination for world-class events. The Sky Tower features 312 elegantly appointed rooms and suites, with spacious layouts ranging from 65 to 395 square meters, delivering refined comfort and sophistication.

Experience world-class entertainment at The Theatre at Solaire and innovative exhibits at The Space at Solaire. The Theatre has 1,740-seats, which has hosted both local and international productions including Les Misérables, Miss Saigon, Hamilton, and the soon to be showing Jesus Christ Superstar this coming May 2026. The Space at Solaire, which opened last year, has already been home to The FRIENDS Experience in Manila and LEGO Brickman® Wonders of the World running until March 8.

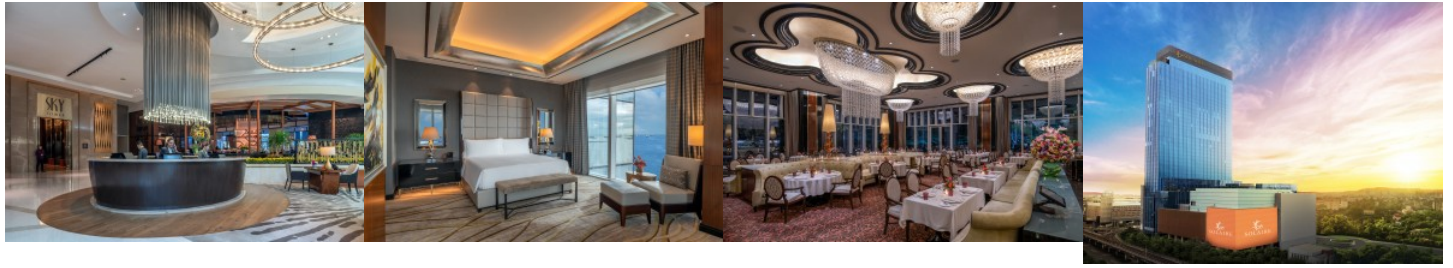

From acclaimed signature restaurants such as Finestra, Red Lantern, and Yakumi to casual dining venues and sophisticated bars, Solaire delivers a well-rounded culinary experience. Stylish interiors frame an elevated menu selection, complemented by 685 wine labels, over 400 whisky labels, signature cocktail creations, and a wide-ranging beverage list. Guests may also enjoy in-room dining for a relaxed and personalized dining experience.

In line with its commitment to responsible growth, Solaire Resort Entertainment City integrates sustainability and good governance into its operations through Bloomberry Resorts Corporation. Guided by global sustainability frameworks, the resort advances initiatives focused on environmental stewardship, employee welfare, guest safety, and community engagement.

With its 10th consecutive Forbes Travel Guide Five-Star Award, Solaire Resort Entertainment City continues to set the standard for luxury hospitality in the Philippines while showcasing Filipino excellence on the global stage.
