

America's Best in Medicine Highlights Danielle R. Miller, MSW, LSW, for Dedication to Behavioral Health and Social Work

Cincinnati, Ohio Mar 13, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - America's Best in Medicine highlights the appointment of Danielle R. Miller, MSW, LSW, as Molina Waiver Service Coordinator. In this role, Danielle will lead efforts to support members and their families by navigating care options, coordinating services, and implementing individualized plans to enhance safety and quality of life.

With a Master of Social Work from the University of Cincinnati and extensive experience across healthcare, behavioral health, and child welfare, Danielle brings a wealth of expertise to her new role. She is licensed in the state of Ohio and has been actively involved in social work practice since 2016.

Danielle's career includes critical roles such as Inpatient Social Work Care Manager at University of Cincinnati Medical Center, Residential Behavioral Health Facilitator at Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center, and Caseworker at Hamilton County Job and Family Services, where she managed caseloads of up to 50 families, developing care plans, facilitating family reunifications, and advocating for child safety and well-being.

Her leadership extends beyond social work. Danielle served as a First Lieutenant and Executive Officer in the Ohio Army National Guard, leading tactical military police units and completing rigorous officer training at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri. Her military experience complements her commitment to disciplined, structured, and compassionate care management.

Danielle holds certifications in Therapeutic Crisis Intervention, Mental Health First Aid, Nonviolent Crisis Intervention, and Child Welfare Casework, among others, and is skilled in critical systems including SACWIS, EPIC, and JCMS.

"The combination of Danielle's clinical expertise, leadership experience, and dedication to serving vulnerable populations makes her an outstanding addition to our team," said a spokesperson for the Council on Aging of Southwest Ohio. "She is uniquely qualified to guide our members and families through the complexities of care with compassion and professionalism."
