

America's Best in Medicine Profiles Jason A. Versace, M.A., LMHC, NCC: A Beacon of Hope in Mental Health Care

Empowering Lives Through Compassionate and Evidence-Based Therapy

Tampa, Florida Mar 18, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Jason A. Versace, M.A., LMHC, NCC, is making significant strides in the field of mental health as a dedicated therapist committed to fostering emotional wellness and personal growth. With an impressive background in treating a wide range of clients—from children to adults—Jason's expertise spans cognitive behavioral therapy (CBT), trauma-informed care, and solution-focused counseling. He believes that every individual deserves a supportive environment where they can feel understood, empowered, and motivated to make meaningful changes in their lives.

Throughout his career, Jason has worked with diverse populations, addressing a myriad of mental health challenges, including trauma, addiction, dissociative disorders, and relationship issues. His ability to establish trust and rapport with clients is remarkable, enabling him to manage complex clinical situations effectively. Jason is particularly known for his skill in de-escalating stressful circumstances and advocating for patient needs, all while developing personalized treatment plans that promote resilience and long-term success.

In 2025, Jason founded Psi Wellness, Inc., where he serves as both President and practicing psychotherapist. At Psi Wellness, he offers both in-office and telehealth services, managing a caseload of over 100 patients while overseeing the full operations of his practice. His commitment to collaborative care is evident as he works closely with prescribers and healthcare organizations to ensure that clients receive comprehensive support tailored to their unique needs.

Before establishing Psi Wellness, Jason honed his clinical skills at respected behavioral health organizations, including the Neuropsychiatric Institute and Community Bridges Inc. In these roles, he conducted diagnostic assessments, facilitated therapy sessions, and supervised clinical staff, gaining invaluable experience in crisis stabilization and multidisciplinary care coordination. His extensive experience has equipped him with the tools necessary to address the challenges faced by individuals in both inpatient and outpatient settings.

Jason holds a Master of Arts in Clinical Mental Health Counseling from Argosy University and is currently pursuing a Doctor of Philosophy in Psychology with a specialization in Addictions at Northcentral University. As a certified trauma specialist and member of the American Counseling Association, he is committed to ongoing professional development and community impact. His early work included developing parenting workshops aimed at supporting teenage mothers, showcasing his dedication to advocacy and accessible mental health care.

When asked what he enjoys most about practicing therapy, Jason remarked, “The opportunity to assist individuals in achieving their fullest potential is the most rewarding aspect of my work. The fulfillment I derive from helping others improve their health and quality of life is immense. My motivation stems from overcoming personal challenges in my own life, which fuels my passion for helping others recover and thrive.”

Jason A. Versace is not just a therapist; he is a guiding light for those navigating the complexities of mental health. His compassionate, client-centered approach and evidence-based methods make him a vital resource for individuals seeking support and growth. As he continues to lead Psi Wellness, Jason remains steadfast in his mission to provide ethical, comprehensive, and community-focused mental health services.
