

Americas Best In Medicine Showcases Stephanie A. Hansman, FNP-C, Family Nurse Practitioner In Franklin, Indiana Clinic

Advancing Patient-Centered Primary Care Through Compassion, Resilience, and a Commitment to Empowering Patients to Achieve Long-Term Wellness

Franklin, Indiana Mar 11, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Stephanie A. Hansman, FNP-C, a dedicated Family Nurse Practitioner with over four years of experience in family and primary care, joined Adult &

Child Health in 2025. Based in Franklin, Indiana, Stephanie is committed to providing comprehensive, patient-centered, and integrated healthcare to the community.

Her journey in healthcare is a testament to her determination and resilience. Becoming a mother at just 14 years old inspired Stephanie to pursue a career in nursing, driving her to create a strong foundation for her children. She began her healthcare career in the Emergency Room at Franciscan Health, where she honed her skills in acute care, patient assessment, and emergency management.

Stephanie earned both her Associate of Science in Nursing and Bachelor of Science in Nursing from the University of Indianapolis, further advancing her education by completing her Master of Science in Nursing at Indiana State University in 2021. She became a Certified Family Nurse Practitioner in 2022 and has since specialized in preventive care, chronic disease management, acute care, mental health support, and patient education.

In her role at Adult & Child Health, Stephanie collaborates with a network of healthcare professionals to ensure her patients receive high-quality, coordinated care. She values building meaningful relationships with her patients and is committed to helping them achieve their best possible health. “It’s incredibly rewarding to provide guidance, support, and care that improves their quality of life and empowers them to make informed health decisions,” she says.

Stephanie attributes her success as a healthcare provider to her determination, perseverance, and genuine desire to help others. Her life experiences have instilled in her a strong sense of compassion and purpose that guides her daily work. She takes pride in creating a welcoming environment where patients feel heard, supported, and empowered in their healthcare journey.

Outside of her professional commitments, Stephanie enjoys spending quality time with family and friends. She is particularly passionate about supporting her teenage son in his travel soccer endeavors, cherishing every moment spent together.
