

America's Best in Medicine Spotlights Kaley Mooney, PharmD: Emerging Leader in Managed Care Pharmacy

PGY1 Managed Care Pharmacy Resident at Capital Rx Advancing Evidence-Based Decision-Making and Clinical Program Development

Coralville, Iowa Mar 4, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Kaley Mooney, PharmD, is a PGY1 Managed Care Pharmacy Resident at Capital Rx, where she focuses on improving patient outcomes through evidence-based decision-making, strategic formulary management, and innovative clinical program development. She brings a strong analytical mindset and collaborative approach to her work across managed care operations, including formulary services, Medicare initiatives, prior authorizations, and client services.

Kaley earned her Doctor of Pharmacy Degree from the University of Iowa College of Pharmacy in 2025, where she discovered her passion for managed care pharmacy. During pharmacy school, she was a three-time semi-finalist in the AMCP P&T Competition and coauthored three manuscripts, strengthening her expertise in research, clinical evaluation, and professional communication. She also held key leadership roles, serving as President of AMCP and Recording Secretary of Kappa Psi, demonstrating her commitment to professional engagement and advancement.

In addition to her residency training, Kaley has pursued medical writing through RxPharmacist, contributing to the development of the Iowa MPJE Study Guide.

Recognized for her curiosity, drive, and positive leadership style, Kaley Mooney remains committed to advancing managed care pharmacy while cultivating meaningful professional relationships and continuing to grow within the evolving healthcare landscape.
