

America's Best In Medicine Spotlights Santita L. Agnew, RN: Registered Nurse With Clinical Expertise And Leadership

Delivering High-Quality Care Across Medical-Surgical and Operating Room Settings

New York City, New York Mar 4, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Santita L. Agnew, RN, is a dedicated and compassionate Registered Nurse with extensive experience in medical-surgical and operating room settings. Based in Whitestone, New York, she has earned a reputation for delivering exceptional patient care while fostering meaningful connections with patients, families, and multidisciplinary healthcare teams. Her commitment to clinical excellence, attention to detail, and empathetic approach ensures that every patient receives personalized care tailored to their unique needs.

Santita began her academic journey at Pennsylvania State University, earning a Bachelor of Science in Biology, before pursuing her Bachelor of Science in Nursing at Long Island University, graduating Cum Laude. This strong educational foundation, combined with hands-on clinical experience, has prepared her to excel in complex healthcare environments, including pre-operative, surgical, and post-operative care.

Throughout her career, Santita has demonstrated proficiency in a broad range of nursing responsibilities. She has performed pre-operative assessments, assisted surgeons in the operating room, monitored patients post-surgery, and provided comprehensive discharge instructions. At NewYork-Presbyterian Brooklyn Methodist Hospital, she has served as a medical-surgical RN, precepting student nurses and new hires, managing patient care plans, and assuming charge nurse responsibilities to ensure efficient and smooth unit operations.

In addition to her clinical expertise, Santita is deeply committed to patient education and safety. She is skilled in wound care management, medication administration, care coordination with multidisciplinary teams, and non-invasive bedside procedures. Her ability to combine technical skill with empathy allows her to support patients and families throughout every stage of treatment, providing reassurance, clarity, and confidence in the care process.

Santita holds multiple professional certifications, including her RN license, Basic Life Support for Health Care Providers (BLS), and specialized training in operating room and post-operative nursing from New Look New Life Surgical Arts. She is also passionate about ongoing professional development, mentorship, and advancing the standards of patient-centered care in the communities she serves.

“Healthcare is complex, and no two patients are alike,” Santita shares. “I take pride in making a difference and strive to give each patient a positive experience, even during difficult moments. I value being a steady source of comfort and support for patients and their families when they are feeling vulnerable or overwhelmed. Above all, I am honored to be trusted with their care, and that trust is what motivates me and brings me the greatest satisfaction in my practice.”
