

America's In Medicine Highlights Adam Joseph Stein, MD: Vascular Surgeon Improves Outcomes With Skill And Compassion

Delivering Advanced, Patient-Centered Vascular Care Across Connecticut and Rhode Island

Norwich, Connecticut Mar 24, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Adam Joseph Stein, MD, is a highly skilled vascular surgeon at The Vascular Experts, serving patients in New London and Norwich, Connecticut, as well as Westerly, Rhode Island. He provides comprehensive care across the full spectrum of vascular disease, including superficial and deep venous conditions, arterial insufficiency, aortic aneurysms, carotid artery stenosis, and dialysis access maintenance.

Dr. Stein is dedicated to delivering patient-centered care that emphasizes timely treatment, accessibility, and positive health outcomes. He maintains hospital affiliations with Lawrence + Memorial Hospital, Middlesex Hospital, South County Hospital, and Westerly Hospital, ensuring continuity of care for patients across multiple locations. His approach prioritizes prompt evaluation and intervention, allowing patients to receive high-quality care when they need it most.

Dr. Stein began his academic journey studying biochemistry at Columbia University before earning his Medical Degree from the University of Minnesota Medical School in 2016. He then completed his general surgery residency at the University of Nebraska Medical Center in 2021, followed by a vascular surgery fellowship at the University of Missouri in 2023. This extensive training equips him with the expertise to deliver both advanced surgical procedures and comprehensive, long-term management of vascular conditions.

As a member of the Society for Vascular Surgery and the American College of Surgeons, Dr. Stein remains committed to evidence-based practices and the integration of innovative techniques. He attributes his professional success to the collaborative support of his colleagues, the strength of a community-based practice model, and his ability to provide timely access to care for his patients.

What Dr. Stein finds most rewarding about practicing medicine is seeing his patients regain comfort and improve their quality of life. He is dedicated to creating a clinical environment where individuals feel at ease, supported, and confident in the care they receive. His focus on clear communication and attentive treatment helps foster trust and positive outcomes for those he serves.

Outside of his medical practice, Dr. Stein enjoys chopping wood, spending quality time with his family, and hiking. These activities allow him to maintain balance, stay active, and bring renewed energy and focus to his work.

Known for his expertise and approachable nature, Dr. Adam Joseph Stein continues to be a trusted partner for patients seeking comprehensive vascular care.
