

Arun Kumar Consolidates Global Interests to Advance Integrated Multi-Sector Ecosystem Under AR Holdings

Establishing a unified U.S.-based structure to enhance operational alignment, governance standards, and long-term scalability across diverse global business sectors.

Mountain View, California Mar 26, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - AR Holdings Group Corporation today announced the consolidation of its global business interests under a unified U.S.-based holding structure, marking a key step in its long-term strategy to build an integrated, multi-sector ecosystem across technology, infrastructure, finance, and consumer industries.

Headquartered at 1075 Terra Bella Ave, Mountain View, CA, AR Holdings Group Corporation brings together a diverse portfolio of companies operating across multiple sectors, including digital infrastructure, blockchain, artificial intelligence, telecommunications, banking, construction, logistics, consumer electronics, and lifestyle brands.

The consolidation reflects the Group's focus on creating a cohesive operating framework that enhances coordination between its business units while supporting scalable growth across international markets.

AR Holdings' model is centered on integration—where each business vertical is designed to complement and strengthen the others. By aligning digital platforms with physical infrastructure and consumer-facing industries, the Group aims to create efficient, interconnected systems capable of delivering long-term value.

Key areas of development within the Group include advancements in blockchain infrastructure, privacy-focused computing, artificial intelligence applications, financial systems, telecommunications, and sustainable infrastructure projects.

Arun Kumar, Founder of AR Holdings Group Corporation, is a visionary leader with over 15 years of experience in HR technology and blockchain innovation. He has played a key role in developing systems that transform how organizations manage talent and adopt emerging technologies.

As the founder, Arun Kumar's foresight and entrepreneurial approach have laid the foundation for a multi-industry organization designed for long-term scalability. His focus on execution, resilience, and integrated thinking continues to guide the Group's strategic direction.

"AR Holdings was built on the belief that the future lies in connected systems rather than isolated businesses," said Arun Kumar. "This consolidation strengthens our ability to scale globally, operate efficiently, and continue building across industries with a long-term perspective."

The Group's portfolio spans a wide range of sectors, including technology platforms, financial services, telecommunications solutions, consumer electronics, infrastructure development, logistics operations, and consumer brands. In addition, AR Holdings supports social impact initiatives through its foundations, focusing on sustainable living, community development, and research.

With its U.S.-based structure, AR Holdings reinforces its commitment to operating within established regulatory frameworks while expanding its global footprint. The Group continues to prioritize governance, transparency, and compliance as it builds partnerships with institutions, businesses, and public sector stakeholders.
